

Building Blocks for Non-Profits
Organizational & Strategic Planning with Your Nonprofit
 Wednesday, November 9, 2016
 8:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m., Pre-registration at 8:15 a.m.

Program Overview

Is your board and staff leadership on the same page for how to best move your organization forward? During this workshop we will:

- Discuss the various types and level of planning that can have a major impact on your organization’s efficiencies and effectiveness
- Explore strategic planning and how to create a process that works for your organization’s culture and budget
- Discuss how to create an inclusive planning process that enables your key stakeholders to participate and deepen their commitment to your organization
- Review the role of the board and staff during planning and how to create a process that is fun and energizing for everyone
- Explore how to engage in effective board development planning and how to review and update your committee structure

This will be an interactive workshop that includes time for discussions and questions. Board presidents, executive directors, board officers, governance chairs and staff management are encouraged to attend this workshop.

The Presenter

Presenter Jane Page-Steiner is the President of JPS Nonprofit Strategies. JPS assists nonprofits with board development, strategic planning and infrastructure development. Jane is a respected speaker, regularly presenting at national, regional and local nonprofit conferences.
